

Christ Church St. James Anglican Church is seeking a new Youth Minister

Christ Church St. James is seeking to fill the vacancy of part-time Youth Minister. Christ Church St. James (CCSJ) is a vibrant evangelical Anglican parish in the growing West-end of Toronto. CCSJ's ministries are primarily outreach-based, serving the marginalized and those disconnected from traditional church. This includes a food bank that services up to 500 people per month.

The leadership of CCSJ is looking for someone with a heart for young people and passion to see them grow in their faith, to lead a youth group for Teens in Grade 6-12 (ages 12-18).

The Youth Minister will be part of CCSJ's ministry team, and will report to the incumbent or to the missional leader.

The selected Candidate will bring with them a vision for a program that will fulfill the needs of both current and future youth at CCSJ. Some of the ways they may be able to accomplish this are as follows:

- Youth group during church on Sundays plus a social event each month
- Weekly afternoon or evening gatherings
- Continued work on creating opportunity for intergenerational relationships and ministry
- Willingness to be involved in summer camp, and heading up the fundraising initiatives necessary to facilitate the Youths attendance at camp
- Utilizing various types of social media to ensure continuous and active involvement in the lives of young adults at CCSJ
- Establishing or being involved in outreach ministry to teens in the neighbourhood
- Networking with other Youth Ministers in the area

Qualifications

- 3+ years of youth ministry experience
- Some level of theological education preferred
- Organized, Self-Starter who can work with minimum supervision
- Ability to connect with and minister to teenagers
- Desire to share the Gospel with teenagers
- Able to organize and schedule weekly gatherings/events/activities
- Able to organize weekend retreats

Dependent on the candidate's availability, there is some flexibility in the number of hours required – typically it would be between 10 and 20hrs/week

Remuneration will be based on candidate's experience and qualifications.
